Those were the DAYS

he University of Charleston, formerly Morris Harvey College, first known as Barboursville Semimary was founded by the Methodist Episcopal Church-South in 1888. The Reverend T.S. Wade was chosen by the church as the first president. It was his job to transform the Cabell County Courthouse and grounds into a college campus. This job included shutting down the towns two saloons to create a wholesome college town.

On September 12, 1888 the campus and town were ready and the Seminary opened it's doors. Only about 25 people showed up on that first day, but the number soon swelled to 135 students. The objectives of the school were general, "produce scholars", "develop character", "promote Christian culture", and "place higher education within the reach of every young lady and gentleman in the land" In it's pursuit of these goals, only three degrees were offered, bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, and bachelor of literature.

On June 24, 1889, the Seminary changed it's name to Barboursville College. Another change took place on September 8, 1889, with the West Virginia Conference of Churches taking over the assets of the school. By April 1890, the school year had been set at three terms of three months each. Since the school was church related, drama and dancing were forbidden. The only activity was the Cyclone, the school newspaper In May of 1890, Reverend Wade resigned.

The board of trustees elected Dr. Robert W Douthat to replace Reverend Wade. It was during his term that the school began to experience the first in a long line of financial troubles. He started the first publicity for the school by asking local ministers to insist that members attend the conference college. On June 25, 1895, Douthat resigned. During the next five years there were five different presidents. These five could not accomplish very much due to their short stays in office.

That soon changed in June, 1890, with the election of D.W Shaw as president. First, student life became much more organized. Each day students were required to attend a service where there was scripture reading, praying, and singing. A woman could not receive any type of attention from a man unless she had the written permission of her parents and consent of the president. In addition, students were not allowed out of their room after 7 p.m., nor were they allowed to dance or go anywhere dancing was permitted.

AN ODE TO HIWASSEE

In the heartland of the Smokies, there's a school in Tennessee It's held within the Hand of God with Hope, its Treasury There's Love and Kindness offered there — Life's Knowledge shared with smiles

It's sending out a message - We'll make a way my child

Hiwassee — Hiwassee We lift your banner high
May you ever lead the children down the path of Wisdom wide
Hiwassee — Hiwassee We thank God for your Light
May you ever bless the children with a Heart of Love inside

Hiwassee calls her children from across the countryside
From the Mountains of Virginia — From the City Ghetto Lights
The Foreign Lands have reached Her Gates and found Her Open Heart
The Dreams and Hopes that blend our lives mold Kindred Spirits from the start

(Chorus)

There's a Treasury of Knowledge,
There's a Treasury of Love
There's a Treasury of Wisdom sent down from God above
There's a Treasury of Friendship, of Memories and of Dreams Yes, the Heart of Hiwassee has blessed the Heart of me

Hiwassee you have blessed each Heart within our Souls

Hiwassee you have guided us to reach our Dreams and Goals In the Heart of God's Great Country where the Mountains kiss the Sky

Where the Hills and Valleys bow their Heads to our Majesty on High

May the Memories of Hiwassee warm our Spirits o'er the Years
May the Memories we are building bridge the Times when we're not here
May Tomorrow's Aspirations be fulfilled for every life
May you ever lead the Children down the Path of Wisdom Wide
(Chorus)

As the year ends, I hope we have accomplished our goal of making the best yearbook ever. The year-book staff has put a lot of time and effort into this year-book. I cannot close this book without saying many thanks to the yearbook staff and especially Lee Ann Prince. Lee Ann has put in a lot of extra time to make sure layouts were done and everybody who needed help received it. Again, many thanks to everyone who made this yearbook possible.
